

Massachusetts Computer Using Educators, Inc. November 1998

*All educators are invited to attend any MassCUE SIG meetings.
Invite your colleagues to join you.*

Mass. School Library Media Assn. Conference

November 1-2

Keynote: Dr. Gary N. Hartzell, University of Nebraska, author of Building Influence for the School Librarian, speaking on topic of "The Invisible School Librarian."

Other Speakers: William Tapply, author of 14 Brady Coyne mystery novels,
Donna Harington-Lueker, author of the article "The Powered-Up Library" (Electronic Learning)
Jerry Pallotta, children's book author (Extinct Animal Alphabet Book, Flower Alphabet Book, Ocean Alphabet Book, and Spice Alphabet Book).

Location: Holiday Inn, Worcester

Information: Contact MSLMA via e-mail at <laznavour@aol.com>.

Worcester SIG

Monday, November 2

Location: Venerini Academy
27 Edward St.. Worcester, Ma. 01605

Time: 3:30 P.M.--5:30 P.M.

Topic: "ClarisWorks for Dummies and Others"

Presenter: Diane Adamowicz, Sullivan Middle School, Worcester

Description: Basic Word Processing, saving to a disk, and print out of document.

Contact: Carol Skehan 508-753-3210 skehan@venerini.org

Directions: 290 west exit 18. Follow sign to Route 9 east (take left). This puts you on Belmont Street. Go through 2 sets of traffic lights. At yellow blinking light take right. This is Edward St. It is opposite Memorial Hospital. Coming from the opposite direction, 290 east take exit 17. Make right turn onto Belmont St. At yellow blinking light take right. This is Edward St. opposite Memorial Hospital. Within the city--from Lincoln Square go straight up Belmont St. Edward St is opposite Memorial Hosp.

Networking SIG

Thursday, November 12

Location: Rebecca M. Johnson School
55 Catharine Street, Springfield MA 01109 (413) 787-6687

Time: 4:30-6:00

Topic: Creating and Using E-mail Accounts through Yahoo! Mail

Presenters: Sarah Collins and Susan Pease

Description: This workshop is perfect for educators who have Internet access, but do not have an e-mail account to use. We will be creating e-mail accounts using Yahoo! mail, and will also be talking about other e-mail uses, such as Listservs, pen pals, etc.

Contact: Sarah Collins (413) 592-5828 or scollins@massed.net
Susan Pease (413) 536-2118 or susan.pease@the-spa.com

Directions: Take Route 91 north or south to State Street. Follow State Street for approx. 1.5 miles. Take left at the intersection/light after McDonald's (on left). Johnson School is visible from State Street, large brick building with green trim.

The North Shore SIG

Thursday, November 12

Topic: "Building a Local History and Environment Archive"
A model project for K-12 and community use.

Presenter: Linda Morkeski, Middle School Technology Specialist
Author of "Discover Topsfield" A workbook for parents and students.

Explore the development of this innovative, interactive web site project designed to enhance educational resources at the community level. Hardware and software tools.

Time: 3:15-5:00 at the Masconomet High School Library

Contact: Susan Carson 978-887-2323 ext.272 carson@tiac.net

Directions: Exit 51 off Route 95 Located next to the highway. Parking in far parking lot.

Instructional Technology Specialist SIG

1

Friday, November 13

Topic: Hands on PC TroubleShooting Workshop